Newquay

14th July

Hi Gemma,
I'm in Newquay. It's great! Yesterday we went surfing in the sea. The sea was a bit cold. We went trampolining, too. We jumped up and down and got hot again! It didn't rain and we played football on the beach. The aquarium was good and I really loved the turtles and the fish. We also visited the water park. It was a fantastic holiday and I want to come back next year. Are you enjoying your summer holidays, too?

Love,
Sarah

I'll tell you what happened! Those weird guys... Grrr!

1

2

They wanted to go on the ride. They went into a pod.

3

The door closed, then I saw a flash and there was a BANG. And then the pod took off.

4

But these pods can't fly, can they?

Well, this one certainly flew. It flew right off the ride!

5

Where did it fly?

HOW did it fly?

Hmm, maybe they used the THD for power.

6

Well, it didn't work. Look.

I don't understand. What do those weird guys want?

Last year, I went to a city called Agra in India. I visited the Taj Mahal with my family. A man called Emperor Shah Jahan married a princess called Mumtaz Mahal. When she died he was very sad. He built the Taj Mahal for her. Twenty thousand workers and one thousand elephants finished it in 1653. The tombs of Emperor Shah Jahan and his wife are inside the Taj Mahal. I think the Taj Mahal is beautiful!
Samir, 11, India

This summer, I went by bus to Cappadocia in Turkey. We stayed in a hotel in front of the Uçhisar Castle. During the day, we visited a city that was inside a mountain. There are houses, restaurants and hotels all inside the mountain. We then went in a hot-air balloon and saw the beautiful Fairy Chimneys. After that, we visited a famous Turkish bath. I can't wait to visit Cappadocia again next year.

Last year, I visited a city called Machu Picchu. It's in the Andes Mountains in Peru. Long ago, people called Incas lived in this ancient city. The city was lost in the mountains for hundreds of years. There are ruins of gardens, houses and even a palace. My favourite ruin is called the Intihuatana Stone. It was a big sundial at the top of a big pyramid. There were often special celebrations around the Intihuatana Stone. Machu Picchu is a great place to visit!
